
Subject: Therapeutics
Date: Tuesday, 1 February 2011 3:37:32 PM

I think a two tiered registration, similar to that which existed for optometrists without diagnostic drug qualification, makes the most sense. This way the wealth of experience which exists will not be lost by prematurely pushing people into retirement. That is what will happen even though that is not the intention of the board.

Michael Drayton
